William Jacob Management Announces Ronald Horton as Vice President of Operations

Houston, TX – February 11, 2014 – William Jacob Management, Inc. announced today that Ron Horton has joined the company to take on the role of Vice President of Operations. Mr. Horton brings to William Jacob Management over 30 years of experience leading and managing technically complex high risk, high reliability organizations. Ron will report to President and Owner, Michael Duffy and will be focused on helping to continue the Company's growth in a number of areas of operations from the corporate office level and in the project sector.

Horton is a former United States Navy Rear Admiral, a former Navy fighter squadron commander, and a former commander of numerous surface vessels including the nuclear powered aircraft carrier USS Enterprise (CVN-65). Ron received his bachelor's degree from the United States Naval Academy and is a graduate of the U.S. Navy's prestigious Nuclear Power Program.

"Ron is uniquely qualified to manage our operations goals and we are excited about the growth opportunities that exist for our company with Ron at the helm. His exceptional high-caliber talent will help us to deliver on or project growth initiatives and complement our corporate office operations as well," said William Jacob Management's President and Owner, Michael Duffy. Jerry Mouton (Vice President Business Development) added, "We are excited to have Ron join our team. He not only brings with him unparalleled operations experience, but also a strong moral character that embodies the beliefs and foundation of our company."
